RE: Letter of Response for Grievance #2717 filed on January 7, 2019

Dear [REDACTED]

In accordance with Chapter 24 Subtitle 5-E, Section 405 of the District of Columbia Municipal Regulations, DC Public Schools (DCPS) Comprehensive Alternative Resolution and Equity team has completed its investigation of the above referenced written grievance.

Based on a review of the information provided, the written grievance raised the following issues under the jurisdiction of this office:

Any other violation of a right granted by law that does not have a specific grievance procedure or hearing process provided in this title. You raise concerns that student drop-off and pick-up procedures at [REDACTED] are inconsistent and change every day. Specifically, you report that staff typically escort students to the classroom during drop-off, however, on one occasion you were told to drop your student off to the classroom yourself.

The review included interviews with the following individuals:

1. [REDACTED] Principal

The review also included review of the following documents which were either submitted by the complainant, submitted by the school, or accessible via DCPS data systems: n/a

1. [REDACTED] reported to DCPS CARE that if students arrive on time to school, staff escort students to their respective classrooms.

2. reported to DCPS CARE that parents may be allowed to drop off students at their classrooms if the student is late, does not want to separate from the parent, or if the school is short on staff on a particular day.
 3. reported to DCPS CARE that students are also escorted by staff
