Chancellor's Policy on Discretionary Out-of-Boundary Transfers

Subject: Chancellor's Authority to Grant Discretionary

125

Rescinds: N/A

Section 125

Section 125 of the University of California Regents' Code, adopted by the Board of Regents in 1990, provides that the Chancellor has the authority to grant discretionary out-of-boundary transfers to faculty members who are not members of the University of California system. This authority is subject to the approval of the Board of Regents and the Chancellor's Office.

Section 125.1

Section 125.1 of the University of California Regents' Code, adopted by the Board of Regents in 1990, provides that the Chancellor has the authority to grant discretionary out-of-boundary transfers to faculty members who are not members of the University of California system. This authority is subject to the approval of the Board of Regents and the Chancellor's Office.

Section 125.2

Section 125.2 of the University of California Regents' Code, adopted by the Board of Regents in 1990, provides that the Chancellor has the authority to grant discretionary out-of-boundary transfers to faculty members who are not members of the University of California system. This authority is subject to the approval of the Board of Regents and the Chancellor's Office.

Section 125.3 of the University of California Regents' Code, adopted by the Board of Regents in 1990, provides that the Chancellor has the authority to grant discretionary out-of-boundary transfers to faculty members who are not members of the University of California system. This authority is subject to the approval of the Board of Regents and the Chancellor's Office.
